The Breath of Life

“But when the set time had fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to redeem those under the law, that we might receive adoption to sonship. Because you are his sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, the Spirit who calls out, “Abba, Father.” So you are no longer a slave, but God’s child; and since you are his child, God has made you also an heir.”

Galations 4 : 4 - 7 (NIV)

2 Corinthians 9:6-11

Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work. As it is written: "They have freely scattered their gifts to the poor; their righteousness endures forever."
 Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.

Every warrior's boot used in battle and every garment rolled in blood will be destined for burning, will be fuel for the fire. For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the greatness of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this.

'Blessings After Christmas'

The Christmas season is truly a wonderful time of the year. There is beautiful and fun Christmas music almost everywhere, and the decorations on the homes and inside stores are enjoyable as well. It is inspiring to witness the outpouring of generosity, with so many people giving more of their time and money to help others who are experiencing serious difficulties in their lives. I am very thankful for the generosity of so many people during this time of the year.

Blessing other people is so important for all us to do. God blesses us so that we can be a blessing to others. It is important to stay in that frame of mind after the Christmas season has ended. The decorations will be put away until next year, the special music will be played very infrequently for the next eight or nine months and the frantic pace of the season will give way to a somewhat quieter level of insanity. What will not change is the daily needs of people who are facing severe struggles in every day life. Although our economy has been gradually improving the past year, many people continue to be in severe financial distress. Some are still about to lose their homes, not able to adequately feed and clothe their children, are unemployed or underemployed unable to pay all their bills, and some are homeless.

Whatever you do during the Christmas season to bless other people, please continue to do those things continuously after Christmas, and throughout the entire year, every year. Needs do not go away after the decorations are put away in storage, and December turns into January. Everyone needs food, shelter, and the other basics of life. God does his works of love and compassion through His people doing His work. We are blessed so that we can be a blessing.

"This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples." - John 15: 8

Dear Friends: God love you and I feel led to share some thoughts with you about Jesus. Jesus paid the greatest price on Calvary's cross, and opened the door to a life with no end. Jesus brought life, Satan brought death. If the death angle knocks at your door today, is your heart fixed on God? Jesus said, "If you love me keep my commandments." I've worked for Jesus most of my life. Jesus Christ is everything, nothing can replace Him in our lives. May God bless everyone that reads this. - Evangelist Lincoln Sanders 931-304-6319.

2 Corinthians 10:2-5

I beg you that when I come I may not have to be as bold as I expect to be toward some people who think that we live by the standards of this world. For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

Overcoming Isolation And Loneliness

(NAPS)—If you've ever felt lonely, you're not alone. Researchers at the University of Chicago found that nearly half of older adults in America experience some degree of loneliness.

The University of Chicago study is part of Connect2Affect, a collaborative effort spearheaded by AARP Foundation to learn more about isolation and loneliness in older adults and to work toward practical solutions to reconnect older adults to their communities.

One thing the study highlighted that may seem surprising to many is that loneliness and isolation are not the same.

Loneliness and Isolation

Loneliness or subjective isolation denotes how people perceive their experience and whether they feel isolated.

Objective isolation involves quantifiable measurements, such as the size of the person's social network (and the frequency of engagement with it), availability of transportation, and ability to access resources and information.

The Problem

Together, loneliness and isolation create a growing health epidemic. The health risks of prolonged isolation—in its broadest sense, including both objective isolation and loneliness—are equivalent to smoking 15 cigarettes a day. More than 8 million adults age 50 and older are affected by it.

Why Isolation Happens

Often, there are multiple causes, including poor physical and mental health, poorly designed communities, and major life events such as loss and retirement.

Socioeconomic status stands out as a differentiator between nonlonely and lonely individuals. Lonely older adults are significantly more likely to have an annual household income of less than $25,000 and assets less than $10,000, and are more likely overall to be in the lowest income group.

Marital status is another strong indicator of loneliness. Both married and unmarried older adults can be lonely—but the lonely are less likely to be married and more likely to be divorced, separated or widowed. Fourteen percent of married older adults and 30 percent of unmarried older adults fall into the lonely group. While married women are at a higher risk of loneliness than married men, unmarried women are at a lower risk of loneliness than unmarried men. In both cases, those with more support and less strain in their marital relationship are at lower risk of loneliness.

Some Answers

Fortunately, isolation can be overcome. Here are 12 ideas to try:

- Nurture and strengthen existing relationships. Ask people over for coffee, or invite them to join you for a trip to a museum or a movie.
- Schedule a time each day to call a friend or visit someone.
- Meet your neighbors—young or old.
- Use social media such as Facebook to stay in touch with long-distance friends, or write an old-fashioned letter.
- Stay physically active and include group exercise as a fun way to socialize while staying healthy.
- Take a class to learn something new and expand your circle of friends.
- Revisit an old hobby and connect with others who share your interests.
- Volunteer to deepen your sense of purpose and help others.
- Visit a senior or community center to find a wide range of activities and opportunities to meet people.
- Check out faith-based organizations. Many offer outreach to help isolated community members.
- Don't let being a nondriver keep you from staying active. Find out about your transportation options. Many communities have free or low-cost services, and ride-hailing apps are an affordable option for many.
- Get involved in a cause.

Seeds of Hope

“And while they were there, the time came for her baby to be born. She gave birth to her first child, a son. She wrapped him snugly in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no lodging available for them. That night there were shepherds staying in the fields nearby, guarding their flocks of sheep. Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared among them, and the radiance of the Lord’s glory surrounded them. They were terrified, but the angel reassured them. “Don’t be afraid!” he said. “I bring you good news that will bring great joy to all people. The Savior - yes, the Messiah, the Lord - has been born today in Bethlehem, the city of David! And you will recognize him by this sign: You will find a baby wrapped snugly in strips of cloth, lying in a manger.” Suddenly, the angel was joined by a vast host of others—the armies of heaven—praising God and saying, “Glory to God in highest heaven, and peace on earth to those with whom God is pleased.” When the angels had returned to heaven, the shepherds said to each other, “Let’s go to Bethlehem! Let’s see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.” They hurried to the village and found Mary and Joseph. And there was the baby, lying in the manger.

Five Hacks To Help You Have An Easier Time

by Kristen Howerton
 (NAPS)—You can get the best out of life if you heed these smart suggestions:
1. Keep it simple. You don't have to “do it all.” Opt out of obligations that make you feel frazzled instead of joyful. Prioritize what's important to you and give yourself permission to say no.
2. Start early. Make deadlines for yourself whether your gearing up for holidays, a vacation, the new school year or a special occasion. Set a time to write lists, cards, invitations and so on. Get the kids to help. Let them try their hand at creating cards and gifts. It may not be perfect, but it makes them feel important.

“Rage Against the Minivan” blogger Kristen Howerton says your house doesn't have to be picture perfect to be wonderful for your family.

A tiny spray that fits in your purse can be a big help in avoiding unpleasant odors in other people's bathrooms.

Such tasks as making and sending cards and gifts can be a chance for family fun.

3. Be prepared for parties. Keep a couple of bottles of wine on hand for hostess gifts or impromptu get-togethers. Grab some coloring books to take along for when the kids get bored. Don't forget a secret weapon for when nature calls while you are out and about: Air Wick's V.I.Poo can be stashed in your purse and is an excellent foul-odor preventer. Just a few sprays in the toilet before you go and you can avoid the embarrassment of a smelly bathroom at someone else's house. It comes in fruity, rosy, lemon and lavender scents. Learn more at www.airwick.us/vipoo.

4. Prioritize quality family time over perfection. Try to cultivate a lifestyle that is less about spending and more about making memories and giving presence as well as presents. Give your kids family traditions to remember. Let go of the pressure to do everything perfectly. Your house doesn't have to look like a magazine illustration. You don't need to change your pillows or plates every season. It's okay to bring pre-made food to the class party. Let yourself off the hook.

5. Clean out the closets. Look through your old clothes and ask your children to find 10 toys to donate and do an audit of their closets. Give away anything you don't wear or they don't play with but is still in good condition.

New-Fashioned Sausage Cassoulet

(NAPSA)—If you're one of those people who order cassoulet whenever you see it on the menu, you have lots of company. Most people love cassoulet and order it because it's a dish they think is hard to make at home. Well, here's a recipe that shows this French dish is really simple to make yet complex in flavor:

New-Fashioned Sausage Cassoulet
 Yield: 4

- 1 teaspoon olive oil
- ½ pound fully cooked smoked sausage, cut in 2-inch lengths
- ½ pound fresh Italian sausage links, cut in 2-inch lengths
- 2 cups chopped onion
- 3 cloves garlic, peeled and minced
- 1 (28-ounce) can diced tomatoes including liquid
- 1 teaspoon dried thyme leaves
- ½ teaspoon dried rosemary, crushed
- 2 whole bay leaves
- ¼ teaspoon ground cloves
- 1 (14- to 15-ounce) can white beans (cannellini or great northern), drained and rinsed

This delicious cassoulet is simple to make and complex in flavor.

2. Discard all but 1 teaspoon pan drippings. Add onion to hot pan drippings and cook until tender. Add garlic and sauté only until fragrant, about 30-40 seconds.
3. Stir in tomatoes with liquid, thyme, rosemary, bay leaves, cloves and beans.
4. Bring mixture to a gentle boil. Return sausage to pan. Cover and gently simmer for 30 to 40 minutes to allow flavors to develop.
5. Remove bay leaves. Serve cassoulet in individual shallow soup bowls.

1. Heat oil in a large, heavy skillet over medium heat. Add sausages and sauté until brown, about 10 minutes. With a slotted spoon, transfer sausages to drain in a paper towel-lined bowl.

Matthew 6:30 - 34

If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you - you of little faith? So do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Psalm 103:8-13

The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love. He will not always accuse, nor will he harbor his anger forever; he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities.

For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.

As a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord has compassion on those who fear him; for he knows how we are formed...

More Prep for the Holidays

by Lisa Luck

We are in the thick of the holiday season. The holiday season is now synonymous with "the shopping season." For Thanksgiving (celebrated by 92% of US citizens), buying food is the rage. And now that Thanksgiving is in the rearview mirror – Christmas is next. Buying for others (and ourselves) is a tradition that is not easy to break. Our purchases support the economy – but environmentally may not be so sound. Here are some good environmental guidelines for buying this holiday season.

#1 – Buy only items made from natural materials such as cotton, bamboo, linen or silk rather than polyester, nylon, acrylic or rayon. Synthetic fabrics do not biodegrade, while natural materials do. Synthetic materials pollute the air, soil and water with microplastics, or small particles of plastic fibers that were used to make the fabric. Although natural materials are more expensive, they will last for many seasons rather than just one.

#2 – Buy locally. Shipping gifts takes packaging. A lot of packaging. Shopping at a local store will save money, transportation cost, reduce packaging and will also boost the local economy! Money that is spent in our community at local businesses stays in our community.

#3 – Don't buy something you think will work for someone you do not know well. Many gifts purchased with love in mind are immediately re-gifted or donated to Goodwill.

#4 – Avoid plastics. Plastic anything is harmful for the environment. This includes clothes, food packaged in plastic wrapping, or plastic do-dads. Avoid the plastic cute but unnecessary stuff.

#5 – Christmas is a good excuse to splurge on ourselves and others. Here is some good advice to go along with the good excuse: Don't. Some of us have not yet paid off what we spent for Christmas last year. Let's give ourselves a chance to get caught up.

#6 – Buy fair trade items. These are items made by individuals or small companies that get paid a fair wage. So many items, especially clothes, are made with slave labor or labor that is not adequately compensated. Fair trade items are regulated and assure that whoever made or grew those items are fairly compensated. Most fair trade items are also environmentally friendly and use recycled materials.

#7 – Instead of buying more of the same every year, shake things up. Buy something for someone who lacks clothing and food rather than someone that has it all. These gifts will truly be appreciated.

#8 – Rather than buying stuff, how about buying food instead? We all eat and it is necessary for our good health. Stuff frequently ends up on a shelf gathering dust and becomes more of an annoyance rather than a joy. Good food such as coffees, teas, olive oil and other extravagant but delicious items will be appreciated.

#9 – How about giving a plant to a loved one instead of a pet? Plants can be left unattended for days. They do not require daily food or water and can grow into something special or even edible. No vet required.

The Glory of Christmas Day

"But the angel said to her, 'Do not be afraid, Mary, you have found favor with God. You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever; his kingdom will never end.'"

Luke 1: 30 - 33

"For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

John 3:16

"And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were greatly afraid. Then the angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be the sign to you: you will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying: 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men!'"

 6:34-38

And if you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, expecting to be repaid in full. But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. "Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you."

Trim the country ham, cutting the fat off the outer edges. Render the fat.

Cook the trimmings in a skillet until they render about 2 teaspoons of fat. Cook the ham until it is brown. Then remove.

Add coffee (some use only water, do whichever you please) to the skillet, and simmer, scraping up bits from the bottom of the pan. Serve Hot, over biscuits, or whatever you please!
